LORD LI TO THE RESCUE.

The Chinese Viceroy Defends the Work of Missionaries.

HIS WARNING TO EVIL DOERS.

They Must Not "Fish for Wealth," and Any Who Molest Missionaries Will be "Punished in the Fattest Measure, Certainly Not Leniently."

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Robert E. Speer, secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church in the United States, has just received a letter from Rev. W. I. Houston, of Nanking, China, dated July 12. The letter contains a copy of the proclamation issued by Li Hung Chang, the viceroy, which not only requires the Chinese to refrain from molesting missionaries, but speaks in terms of praise of the work done by them. Mr. Speer says that the proclamation illustrates the folly of forming judgment of the whole of China from conditions existing in one section, and it is more significant because Nanking has always been a more or less turbulent center. The following is the letter: "In Su Chuan, 2,000 miles to the west, wholesale destruction of mission property has taken place. Here we are sought after by the officials. Three weeks ago our district magistrate invited all the men of our mission community to dinner, treating them with all honor, and now comes, unbidden, one of the best proclamations which has been issued in China since the era of modern missions. The translation is as follows: "Given by Li, by grace of the emperor, commissioner of salt revenue, expectant intendant of circuit, and prefect of the Jiang Ning (Nanking) circuit, being advanced three steps in office and having one brevet rank, having thirteen times honorable mention in official records: "For the purpose of publicly and straightly charging the people concerning foreigners, who have, in whatsoever points of the interior, established chapels, schools or like places. For a long time these have been permitted by the emperor's commands. Now, having examined the doctrine halls in every place pertaining to this prefecture, we find that there have been established free schools where the poor children of China may receive instructions; hospitals where Chinamen may freely receive healing; that the missionaries are really good; not only do they not take the people's possessions, but they do not seem to desire men's praise.

"Given by Li, by grace of the emperor, commissioner of salt revenue, expectant intendant of circuit, and prefect of the Jiang Ning (Nanking) circuit, being advanced three steps in office and having one brevet rank, having thirteen times honorable mention in official records: "For the purpose of publicly and straightly charging the people concerning foreigners, who have, in whatsoever points of the interior, established chapels, schools or like places. For a long time these have been permitted by the emperor's commands. Now, having examined the doctrine halls in every place pertaining to this prefecture, we find that there have been established free schools where the poor children of China may receive instructions; hospitals where Chinamen may freely receive healing; that the missionaries are really good; not only do they not take the people's possessions, but they do not seem to desire men's praise.

"Already the prefect, with the magistrates of the provincial capital, has personally visited each hall and has commanded the magistrates of outside districts to personally visit each out station of the churches and talk with the missionaries. They have personally observed the hospitals, schoolhouses, etc. They are for good, and established with the sincere desire to save men. Although Chinamen are pleased to do good, there are none who excel these missionaries.

"We think it right, therefore, to put forth this proclamation, plainly charging soldiers and all people. Be it known that foreigners here renting or otherwise setting up halls do so to save and to help the poor, and that there is not the least underhandness. Let it not be that you, on the contrary, wrongly invent false reports and even commit crimes and misdemeanors. If there should be shameless villains who, thinking to 'fish for wealth' (i. e., take by violence), invent reports and create disturbances, falsely accusing the missionaries of offenses, they will first be thoroughly examined, then strictly dealt with. They will be punished to the fullest measure; certainly not leniently. You have been informed and warned. Do not disregard this proclamation."

"I had a very pleasant interview last week with the Hon. Yung Wing. He will be remembered as the man in whose charge 120 Chinese boys were taken to New England in 1872 to attend school. In the late war they were found to be the only officers of the navy who could be depended on to fight. This has advanced them in favor with those officials who are inclined to be progressive, and our viceroy, Jang Chih Tung, cabled to Yung Wing, who is an American citizen, and has been living at Hartford, Conn., for thirteen years, to come out. His object was to consult in regard to an educational system for China. "Yung Wing's plans are very wide embracing the requiring of knowledge of English and Chinese in the competitive civil examinations, which are the foundations of China's civil service; compulsory education of both sexes; the establishment of high schools and universities, and the education of large numbers of Chinese boys in the United States, England and Germany. He does not include France in the list, because he fears the effect of French thought upon the moral character of his former countrymen."

A Minister on Trial for Wife Murder. DANVILLE, Ind., Sept. 5.—The jury for the trial of the Rev. William E. Henshaw, the young Methodist minister, who is charged with the murder of his wife last January, is being selected here. The trial promises to be one of the most sensational cases held in central Indiana. Henshaw was holding protracted meetings at the time the crime was committed, and claims that his wife was the victim of robbers. Henshaw also received seventeen stab wounds and two gun shots. He was immensely popular in the community, and his following at the trial will be large.

Another Fugitive Hobbler Caught. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 5.—Charles Allen, one of the Springfield, Ill., post-office robbers who broke out of the Ludlow street jail in New York July 4, was caught here yesterday. He was arrested on a telegram from Park, twenty miles south, where he had "blundered" the postmaster and several bankers out of small sums. Claude Webb, a confidence man, recently chased out of St. Louis, was caught with him.

The Conflict in Formosa. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—The Novoye Yernaya's correspondent at Vladivostok writes that the Formosan insurgents are conducting a successful warfare against the Japanese, in which women share equally with the men in spirit of determined resistance. Though the army is decimated by sickness, the Japanese will grant no quarter, and will spare neither women nor children.

The Nebraska Prison Lease System. LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 5.—The new prison lease system of Nebraska went into effect yesterday, the penitentiary warden being awarded the contract. This is the revival by the legislature of an old system, which was abolished several years ago because of gross frauds discovered in the management.

"Patron of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcomes my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1893, The inmates had the 'LaGrippe' and I was one of the first. Resuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue its occasional use, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me." June 6, 1894. MRS. LAURA C. PHOENIX.

DURRANT'S ORDEAL.

The Medical Students' Trial for Blanche Lamont's Murder.

ALLEGED MOTIVE FOR THE CRIME.

One of the Prisoner's Former Companions Will Testify as to Durrant's Admission to Him of Evil Designs on the Pretty Schoolgirl.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—The trial of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Blanche Lamont was resumed today. There was a great crowd in the court room yesterday.

The Examiner says the prosecution has a witness who will show a motive for the murder—something that has been lacking heretofore on account of Durrant's standing in social and religious circles. The name of the witness is Clarence Wolfe, and it is said that he will swear that on the day before Blanche Lamont was murdered he and Theodore Durrant held the conversation which explains with terrible significance the motive for killing the girl. Wolfe has told the police, and will tell the jury that on the night of April 2 he and Durrant held the conversation which must show only for a few months. Durrant commented upon the beauty of Blanche, in a tone of exultation and not of respect he assured Wolfe that she was a pure girl, and that he intended to rob her of that virtue which she so prized. The girl prized her honor more than her life, and that explains the tragedy of the following day.

Durrant spoke in words far plainer than those which have been published. He left no possible doubt of what he meant. The source of this evidence is, in the opinion of Captain Lee, one of the strongest proofs of his reliability. Had some one who enjoyed no more than a simple acquaintance with Durrant come forward with it there might be some doubt; but it is his sponsor here is one who possessed the student's confidence, shared with his pleasures, and took part in much of the daily routine of his life. This overwhelming testimony which Wolfe will give has been kept a profound secret by the prosecution.

Murdered a Fellow Convict.

MARLBORO, Md., Sept. 5.—Robert Matthews, of Annapolis, an inmate of the house of reformation at Cheltenham, was brought to the Prince George's county jail yesterday afternoon, charged with the murder of John T. Dick, also an inmate of the house of reformation, and belonging to Westminster, Md. It was in evidence before the magistrate that on Aug. 3 the deceased was taking a comb and brush belonging to Matthews, whereupon the latter picked up a carpeted brick, used to prop open a door, and felled Dick. The frontal bone of the head was crushed, and this brought on paralysis. Dick was 14 years old.

English Athletes Arrive.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The English amateur athletes, who will meet the New York Athletic club team on Sept. 21, and those of Cambridge, who will meet the Yale team on Oct. 5, arrived last evening on the steamer Aurania. There are two teams in the party—that of the London Athletic club and the Cambridge team. There are seventeen men in the Cambridge team, and ten in the London Athletic team. Three of the Cambridge men are members of both. Delegations of Yale and New York Athletic club men met the visitors at the pier and took them to their hotel.

Pitiful Case of Destitution.

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 5.—The death of John B. Griffin, son of a Coffeeville, Miss., minister, has brought to light a sad case of destitution. Mrs. Griffin and a little daughter are the only surviving members of a family of six, three children having died of starvation and the father of alcoholism. Neither Griffin's family nor that of his wife knew of their condition until Griffin's death when a cousin of the widow was summoned and provided for her and her remaining child.

Our Business Room.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The Chronicle comments upon the increase of immigration to America as pointing to another trade boom there. It is certain, it thinks, that if there is a healthy industrial revival there, there will be no more tariff tinkering one way or another.
